AEARU Summer Camp 2016

DATES:

July 4 - 23, 2016

VENUE:

Peking University
Beijing, China

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

The AEARU summer camp 2016 is based on Globex Julmester, a global summer program hosted by the College of Engineering, Peking University. It provides participants with a study-abroad experience by allowing them to take 1-2 courses over a period of 3 weeks in July and to get 3-6 PKU credits. The program consists of a suite of English-taught courses as well as extracurricular activities. Most courses are engineering-related subjects. There are also courses on economics and China studies open to all majors.

For more information, please go to: <http://globex.coe.pku.edu.cn/>

TUITIONS AND FEES

Tuition is WAIVED for nominated students from AEARU member universities.

Application fee: RMB 300

Accommodation fee: RMB 60 per day per person for on campus housing

Fieldtrip fees, textbooks and other expenditures (i.e. meals, transportation, visa, insurance, and personal spending etc.) shall be covered by students themselves.

NOMINATION:

Each AEARU member university shall nominate UP TO TWO (2) candidate and send the nomination form (see Annex) to the AEARU Secretariat and PKU coordinator before April 1, 2016.

Upon nomination, the organizer at PKU will issue an acknowledging letter to the students including the instructions on completing the formal application through online and hardcopy submission.

APPLICATION AND ADMISSION

The organizer will notify each nominated students through email, providing instructions for them to complete the online application process. Students should also send hard copies of their application documents to Peking University.

Upon receiving the application materials, PKU shall send the admission package (including the admission letter and JW202 form for international student visa) to the AEARU coordinator at home university.

VISA

For students from AEARU member universities outside China (Mainland, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Macao), a student visa is required.

INSURANCE

Students shall be responsible for their own insurance during their participation to the program. Submission of proof of insurance is required before program participation.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION

An electronic version of pre-departure information including the instruction of how to get to PKU from the airport will be sent through email.
