Introduction

Yonsei Winter Session is originally offered only to Yonsei University students. However, this year, we are giving WAY students an opportunity to have a more expanded learning experience. It's planned to be a blended program of online and offline learning. However, the course format is subject to change depending on the COVID-19 situation.

The full course list will be announced by the end of October. Also, as most of the classes are offered in Korean, students have to check the course syllabus in detail.
